

32.5 Maloney Creek - There are two large, and one small, camp spots at the mouth of the creek at the top of the oxbow. You are now at the most northern point of the Salmon River.

SALMON

OXBOW

Mile 20

RIVER

Deep Cr.

Mile 19

33.8 China Rapids Class III - This long, blind s-curve rapid is named for Chinese miners who reportedly drowned here while attempting to go through it. Requires maneuvering - scout from the left. Note the Chinese rock structures.

31.2 Deep Creek - There are two medium size camp spots in this area.

Mile 21

Mile 18

34.5 End of Snow Hole Canyon - The canyon opens up here and camp spots are abundant for the next 10 miles.

34.7 Cabins - Everett Spaulding, an early Salmon River jet boat operator, built these cabins.

Mile 22

Less than 1 mile

Mile 23

Mile 17

30 Oxbow - This is the beginning of the Oxbow, a five-mile loop in the river. There are several small camp spots in this area.

Long Canyon

MAP 11